To: Deans and Curriculum Committee Members

Dear Curriculum Committee Members,

I write this in support of the proposed new Cinema major under the B.A. Degree in Theatre Arts. The proposal represents our departmental decision to elevate an existing option to a major.

We believe that such a change will more clearly reflect the status and content of our program to current and potential students and to all units in the university, as well as to external stakeholders.

As the plan and the checksheet for the major closely follow the current option, no new resources will be needed at this time.

Sincerely,

Susanna Rinehart

Invent the Future

Department of Theatre & Cinema – School of Performing Arts
Proposal for Cinema Major under B. A. Degree in Theatre Arts

Justification / Need for Major

The conversion from option to major for cinema will provide numerous benefits for students, the department, and the School.

- The change enables the School of Performing Arts to better reflect one of its principal areas of study and better align the program with our peer institutions.
- Students will be able to clearly describe their area of expertise when they seek employment or post-secondary education. The name of the major will describe more clearly the course of study that they have pursued.
- The change will provide for more curricular flexibility and specialization within the School, as well as participation in cross-disciplinary curricular initiatives.
- Students who are considering Virginia Tech for their education in cinema will be able to identify it more easily as being on the list of VT majors. Cinema currently appears under ‘T’ for Theatre. Changing the major title to Cinema will be readily identifiable to prospective students. In addition, our program will be more ‘searchable’ on the internet. Both results should have a positive effect on student recruiting efforts.

Relevance to Virginia Tech mission and strategic plan

Moving cinema from an option to a major will more clearly align this program in the School of Performing Arts with the university’s strategic plan for 2012-2018. One of the aspirations articulated in the plan is this: “We aim to become the national model for the merger and application of the arts and technology as a catalyst for educational excellence.” Cinema exemplifies the merger of art and technology. It is a digital medium in which students use computer-based technology to build narratives and graphic designs, through which they explore cultural and social diversity and re-imagine the conditions of global interdependence.

Students Served

Currently, there are approximately 30 students enrolled in the Cinema option. The program has steadily maintained roughly a quarter of the total number of Theatre Arts majors. It is anticipated that the new major will attract additional students to the major, as the change will help them to more clearly identify and promote themselves to employers and graduate schools.

Resources Needed

The new checksheet for the major incurs only minor changes from the present checksheet for the cinema option. Therefore, no new resources will be required for the implementation of the major at this time.

Administration

First semester students can enroll in the Cinema Major: fall 2017.

Last semester students will be able to graduate with the Cinema Option: fall 2019.

Students currently in the theatre major with a cinema option (TAC) will have the choice of rolling over to the new Cinema Major as early as fall 2017 or remaining in the Cinema Option through fall 2019.

Implementation for either choice can be achieved without significant disruption. The new checksheet closely matches the checksheets currently in force, and current students will have few changes in requirements. These can be handled administratively. In addition, the new major will have the same title as the currently approved option.

The advising staff will work closely with any student who temporarily leaves the program or who returns after the current option checksheet is discontinued, providing appropriate assistance for a timely completion of their degree.

All students will be informed via the department web site (www.performingarts.vt.edu), the majors listserv, and individual advising sessions. New checksheets will be posted on the department web site and in hard copy by the advising offices. Recruiting materials will reflect the changes upon approvals.

our curriculum now that we have integrated the Cinema program from=20
Communications into our Theatre Arts Department.

In the past, to receive a BA in Theatre Arts, all Theatre Arts students=20 had to take an ancillary course in ENGL. They could take either ENGL=20
4165 Shakespeare or ENGL 4166 Shakespeare to satisfy this ancillary=20 requirement.

In our new curriculum, we are proposing to remove our ancillary course=20 requirements. However, we would still like our students to take one of=20 your Shakespeare offerings. We are proposing that our students take=20 either ENGL 4165 or ENGL 4166 as one of their CLE requirements in Area 2=20
Human Ideas, Cultural Traditions and Values.

I am writing to request your permission to have this requirement as part=20 of our curriculum.

If you have questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours,
Greg Justice
Undergraduate Coordinator, Theatre and Cinema
