3. New Business

Commission on Undergraduate Studies and Policies
Resolution CUSP 2020-21H
Resolution to Approve New Major, Advertising, in Bachelor of Arts in Communication

Paul Deck presented the resolution for first reading and introduced Douglas Cannon to answer questions. Currently, Virginia Tech does not offer a degree program that prepares students for careers in the advertising industry and the lack of training puts Virginia Tech graduates at a disadvantage when applying for advertising jobs. A major in advertising under the current Bachelor of Arts in Communication will fill a gap in Virginia Tech’s communication curriculum. The advertising major’s home will be in the School of Communication for accreditation purposes. There will be coordination with the Marketing and Management Departments in the Pamplin College of Business and coordination with the School of Visual Arts for design course work. The Pamplin College of Business is in support of this new major residing in the School of Communication and believes it will be a nice complement to the work being done in the Marketing and Management Departments.
