Constitution for the Pride Council

ARTICLE I: NAME
The name of the organization shall be the Pride Council, hereafter referred to as PC, a University Chartered Student Organization of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University (Virginia Tech).

ARTICLE II: MISSION
The mission of the Pride Council is to serve the Queer and Transgender communities within Virginia Tech. It shall act as an umbrella organization over the branching gender, sexual, and romantic-minority serving student organizations. It shall strive to enhance belonging of the individual, cultural, and racial diversities that exist in the Queer and Transgender communities through inclusive programming and advocacy. It shall make efforts to address the problems and concerns of the Queer and Transgender communities to the administration and other fellow student organizations.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP
Section 1
Membership shall be extended to undergraduate and graduate students of the Virginia Tech community who are in good standing with the University’s Student Conduct and Academics. The Pride Council shall not discriminate against members on the basis of age, color, disability, sex (including pregnancy), gender, gender identity, gender expression, genetic information, national origin, political affiliation, race, religion, sexual orientation, or military status.

Section 2
There shall be two forms of membership:
   a. Voting members: to elect specific PC Executive and Officer Board members listed in ARTICLE III, Section 8 and to pass/veto/abstain changes to the PC Constitution and Bylaws
      i. PC Officer and Executive Board
      ii. PC Board of Representatives
   b. Non-voting members
      i. General body members of any of the PC constituent organizations
      ii. General body member of PC

Section 3
Requirements for voting membership shall be as follows:
   a. PC Officer and Executive Board
      i. The person must adhere to the aforementioned characteristics in ARTICLE III, SECTION 1.
      ii. The person must hold a permanent office within the PC Officer and/or Executive Board listed in ARTICLE III, Section 8 for the current academic semester.
         1. Should the President vacate their position the following academic semester, a successor must be chosen from the Vice Presidents.
         2. Should the Treasurer vacate their position the following academic semester, a successor must be chosen from the Vice Presidents.
3. Should any other role be vacated, it could be left empty until the following academic year or a PC Officer Board member will oversee the role’s duties.

   iii. The person must attend a three-fourths majority of Officer and/or Executive Board meetings (depending on their position) in order to retain their voting rights at the time of elections.

       1. Excused absences are permitted for 25% of all meetings. Reasonable accommodations, including but not limited to virtual meeting options, will be provided to facilitate inclusion and level of required attendance on a case by case basis.

b. PC Board of Representatives

   i. The person must adhere to the aforementioned characteristics in ARTICLE III, Section 1.

   ii. The person must be the designated proxy appointed by the President of the constituent organization, further specified in ARTICLE III, Section 5, and adhere to the rules specified in ARTICLE III, Sections 6a.

   iii. The person must attend a three-fourths majority of PC Board of Representative meetings in order to retain voting rights at the time of elections.

       1. Excused absences are permitted for 25% of all meetings. Reasonable accommodations, including but not limited to virtual meeting options, will be provided to facilitate inclusion and level of required attendance on a case by case basis.

Section 4
Requirements for non-voting membership shall be as follows:

a. General body members of any of the PC constituent organizations

   i. The person must adhere to the aforementioned characteristics in ARTICLE III, Section 1.

   ii. The person must be an active member of one or more of the constituent organizations within PC as listed under ARTICLE III, Section 6.

b. General body members of PC

   i. The person must adhere to the aforementioned characteristics in ARTICLE III, Section 1.

   ii. Not be a general body member or officer of any of PC constituent organizations.

Section 5
The representative of each constituent organization within PC shall be offered membership into the PC Board of Representatives and given full voting rights after induction by the current PC President. In the event that the representative of said organization cannot fulfill their duties as a Board of Representatives member, the said organization may appoint a new representative. The proxy will also be granted full voting rights after induction by the current PC President.

Section 6
For an organization to become a member:
a. The organization must be a recognized as student organization by Student Engagement and Campus Life at Virginia Tech.

b. The organization must write a proposal and have a representative of their organization present it before the PC Board of Representatives. Membership shall then be decided by a three-fourths majority vote of the PC Board of Representatives.

Section 6a
Requirements to be an active member organization are as follows:

1. Attend a three-fourths majority of the PC Board of Representatives meetings per academic year
   a. Excused absences are permitted for 25% of all meetings. Reasonable accommodations, including but not limited to virtual meeting options, will be provided to facilitate inclusion and level of required attendance on a case by case basis.

2. Participate in at least two (2) PC-sponsored events, which can include but are not limited to: Celebrate Bisexuality Day, LGBTQ+ History Month events, Veterans Day, Transgender Day of Remembrance, Transgender Day of Visibility, Lavender Achievement Ceremony or any other yearly programming (i.e. discussions, panels, other speaker events, etc.)

3. Respond in a timely manner to any form of communication by PC. Communications that require a response will include a clearly stated deadline.

Section 6b
For an organization to be considered for removal as a member, at least two (2) of the following conditions must apply:

1. Failure to attend a three-fourths majority of PC Board of Representatives meetings per academic year

2. Failure to participate in at least 2 PC-sponsored events, including but not limited to: Celebrate Bisexuality Day, LGBTQ+ History Month, Veterans Day, Transgender Day of Remembrance, Transgender Day of Visibility, Lavender Achievement Ceremony or any other yearly programming (i.e. discussions, panels, other speaker events, etc.)

3. Failure to respond in a timely manner to any form of communication by PC

4. Failure to meet the standards set forth by the Virginia Tech Student Code of Conduct

Section 7
The permanent offices of this organization shall be:

a. Executive Board
   i. President
   ii. Treasurer
   iii. Vice President Internal
   iv. Vice President External
   v. Secretary

b. Officer Board
   i. All Executive Board members
   ii. Planning Chairs
iii. Financial Chair
iv. Outreach Chair
v. Communications Chair

The specific powers and duties of each office shall be enumerated in the BYLAWS, ARTICLE I. The aforementioned offices shall form the PC Executive and Officer Boards.

ARTICLE IV: MEETINGS

Section 1
The date, time, and place for PC Executive Board, Officer Board, and Board of Representatives meetings shall be decided and announced at the beginning of each semester. Any change in date, time, and place shall be set by the President and announced by the Secretary.

The date, time, and place for PC Executive Board and Committee meetings shall be decided by the President.

It is expected that:
1. The PC Executive Board meets on a weekly basis during the Fall and Spring semesters.
2. The PC Officer Board meets on a bi-weekly basis during the Fall and Spring semesters.
3. The PC Board of Representatives meets on a monthly basis during the Fall and Spring semesters.

Section 2
A special meeting may be called at the discretion of the PC Executive Board and/or Board of Representatives after notifying all members 24 hours prior to the special meeting time.

Section 3
1. Meeting attendance is mandatory by all members of office and all organization representatives for the three-fourths majority of meetings as specified in Article III Section 3.

2. Should a representative of an organization be unable to attend a Board of Representatives meeting, they must notify the Secretary of PC in advance as well as send another representative from their respective organization if they are able.

Section 4
If a constituent organization is no longer an active organization at Virginia Tech or becomes an inactive organization at Virginia Tech within the academic year, the Board of Representatives proxy must inform the Internal Vice President and President of PC of the organization’s circumstances.

Section 5
If any member of any office or any representative fails to attend a three-fourths majority of meetings, then the voting rights of this person shall be removed. If the PC Executive Board believes it to be appropriate, then the person may be impeached from office in accordance with BYLAWS, ARTICLE II.

ARTICLE V
NOMINATIONS AND ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Section 1
The requirements for office positions shall be as follows:

a. Each candidate must fulfill all requirements mentioned in ARTICLE III, Section 3.
b. The candidate must complete an application form stating their qualifications for office.
c. The candidates for President and Vice Presidents must be members of the PC Officer Board for at least one academic year. In the event that no candidates from the current PC Officer Board are deemed fit or win a simple majority in the elections, then a member of the PC Board of Representatives may run. Any other nominations shall not be accepted, unless there are no other nominations from previous Board of Representatives members submitted.

Section 2
Nominations for Spring candidates are optional; however, they are highly encouraged. These nominations for officers for the coming term shall be made through an open call (e.g. email, Google Forms, social media, etc.) for the upcoming semester’s board. Self nominations are welcomed.

Section 3
The elections of the candidates for office shall be held at a general meeting in the spring semester. At this time, the nominees shall go through an interview process and be given an opportunity to state their platform.

Section 4
Each constituent organization must bring one representative from its respective organization to vote. Each representative must be a member of that organization.

Section 5
Voting shall be by secret ballot. A simple majority is required to determine the elected candidate.

Section 6
Upon conclusion of elections, all elected officers shall be required to attend all Executive Board meetings held within the remainder of the semester. At the final meeting of the spring semester, electorates shall take office.

Section 7
If offices remain vacant after a second electoral process is held, then the president holds the power to nominate a candidate who meets the requirements as stated in Article V Section 1. The candidate will become a member of the PC Executive Board confirmed by majority of the Executive Board.

Section 8
There shall be no set limit to the number of terms or consecutive terms that a member may be elected to office; however, any person in office may be removed from that office in accordance with impeachment laws of this Constitution.
